

Ribbons of Blue

Aim/Purpose:

Local communities actively learning about and protecting environmental water quality, and sharing responsibility for management of waterways, wetlands and groundwater

Start Date: 01/07/06

Finish Date: 31/12/08

Project Partners: Department of Environment & Conservation

Project Stakeholders: GeoCatch, Department of Water

Background:

Ribbons of Blue was initiated in WA as a schools environmental education program in 1989. There are currently nine coordinators in the SW

Main Achievements: (to date)

- Biodiversity Art Banners project
- Stream of Dreams Art project
- Annual confluence
- Saltwatch
- Macroinvertebrate snapshot
- Teacher Resource Kit
- Photographic Competition
- Tree Planting Club

Project Officer:

Jen Mitchell

Email: jen.mitchell@water.wa.gov.au

Photos:(see Photo gallery Ribbons of Blue)